

NOT TO BE MISSED

Dr. Wilson will be in NZ for ONE 2010 Seminar only!

“Understanding and Treating Immunity, Allergies and the Digestive System in the 21st Century”

- ▶ Dr. Wilson is the most qualified and experienced functional medicine doctor ever to reach NZ to teach about the GI tract, immune and stress connection. Jim's real passion is immunity, stress and healing the digestive system. You will be delighted with his common sense delivery of such a complex topic.
- ▶ Dr. Wilson is one of few who have earned 3 doctorates and 2 master's degrees, all from different colleges, and all in different health-related disciplines. He received his Ph.D. in Human Nutrition from the University of Arizona, with research in Cellular Immunology. His doctorates in Chiropractic and Naturopathic Medicine are from the Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College and the Ontario College of Naturopathic Medicine (CCNM).

- ▶ Come away having learned unique and clinically relevant information. Dr. Wilson's teaching and protocols can help you take your patient outcomes to whole new level.
- ▶ Feel inspired & gain new insights and tools for your clinical practice.
- ▶ Gain a whole new awareness about digestion, immunity, allergies and endocrine function, learn from a Master Clinician.
- ▶ Dr. Wilson was invited to lecture at the Royal Society of Medicine in London 2007, due to the success of his presentation he was extended an invitation to return in 2010.

Topics covered during the seminar include:

- ▶ Dr. Wilson will masterfully explain the connection between circulating cortisol, histamine and HPA axis. You will gain a whole new insight about how to treat the allergic patient after you understand the major significance on stress, immunity and the patient's digestive system. Understand the full significance of how the immune system is in turn affected by foods, digestion and stress.
- ▶ Learn how the thyroid, adrenals and endocrine function generally affect digestion and how the immune system is consequently affected by digestion.
- ▶ Discover how IgE and IgG allergies and delayed-type hypersensitivity reactions and other circular immune events lead to GI problems from foods.
- ▶ Understand the real significance and major impact of secretory IgA function on the gut.

Here is what NZ practitioners said about Dr. James Wilson's 2008 and 2009 Seminars:

“Thanks for coming out to NZ to raise our healing potential and educate people on adrenal management and giving us all a new awareness of optimal health”.

Dr. Simon Roughan, Chiropractor, Christchurch

“I have learned a lot about adrenal fatigue from Dr. Wilson, and now have a different aspect of looking at my clients conditions in this stressful world. I see a lot of people out there who need adrenal help, and whatever conditions they have, I can usually see some connection between their under functioning adrenal glands and their clinical presentations”.

Natsume Lines, B.H.Sc (Comp Med),
Adv Dip Nat, Adv Dip Herb Med. Auckland
